PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

CIRCOR International, Inc. (the "Company") has determined that it is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended April 3, 2022 (the "Quarterly Report") within the prescribed time period for the reasons set forth below.

As previously disclosed, the Company is delayed in filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 (the "Annual Report") because it is restating its financial statements for (i) the years ended December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020, (ii) each of the quarterly and year-to-date periods for 2020 and (iii) the quarterly and year-to-date periods for the nine months ended October 3, 2021 (collectively, the "Restatement Periods"). The restatement is expected to result in one or more material weaknesses in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the Restatement Periods; a full assessment will be included in the Annual Report.

In order to prepare and file its Quarterly Report, the Company must complete the restatement of its financial statements described above and file its Annual Report. Although the Company has dedicated significant resources to completing the restatement and the filing of the Annual Report, the process is not yet complete. As a result, the Company is not able to timely complete the preparation of its financial statements and related disclosures to be included in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended April 3, 2022, without unreasonable effort or expense.

If answer is no, identify report(s).
 Yes No
- Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021
- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Given the Company's ongoing work on the restated financial statements for the Restatement Periods discussed in Part III above and audit of the annual restated financial statements, the Company is not in a position at this time to compare results of operations for the fiscal quarters ended April 4, 2021 and April 3, 2022, and therefore cannot provide reasonable estimates of any potential change in results of operations at this time.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Actual results may differ materially from the expectations the Company describes in its forward-looking statements. Substantial reliance should not be placed on forward-looking statements because they involve unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which are, in some cases, beyond the control of the Company. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from expectations include, but are not limited to findings and conclusions of the Audit Committee's review; the risk that the completion and filing of the Annual Report or the Quarterly Report will take longer than expected; and additional information that may arise during the preparation of the Company's financial statements; and the risks detailed from time to time in the Company's periodic reports filed with the SEC. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
